This week – KIVA update from Ian.

At this week's meeting we'll have a KIVA update from Ian about our KIVA portfolio, which whilst relatively modest, has helped a great many people around the world to achieve business success, safe and hygienic living, and satisfactory levels of education and family living.

MUNA 2023 was a great success last Saturday, with the school team representing Ethiopia winning the overall best team award.

Stay warm, stay safe.

Ian.

From Mark Humphries (MUNA IT Guru):

Rotary MUNA 2023 (D9810 & 9820) was held yesterday at Nossal High School, Berwick.

What a great day it was with 52 students representing 26 UN-member nations, who debated four resolutions across the day. The delegates were well-prepared and engaged wholeheartedly in their role as ambassadors for the countries they represented.

Topics ranged from global environment, restructure of the UN Security Council, protection of international trade routes and the regulation of social media.

Many thanks to guest speakers Acting Principal Tracey Mackin (Nossal HS), and Chris Crewther MP (Member for Mornington), for inspiring the delegates to seek careers in humanitarian fields and to broaden their understanding of diversity, equity and inclusion to become better people.

Sincere thanks to the fabulous MUNA committee and other Rotarians from various clubs in both 9820 and 9810. A team effort which we very much appreciate.

Secretary-General, Hakim Gassiep (Casey Rotarian), maintained international peace and security within the Model Assembly... much appreciated.

The delegates and attendees enjoyed a wonderful free BBQ dinner. Special thanks to members of the Rotary Club of Somerville-Tyabb for providing their BBQ and skills!

The event was also supported by past and present DGs from both Districts. Linda and Mark Humphries were amazing. A gold star to Rob Cook for his contribution to the success of the event. Mary Dortmans also was a dynamo and took control of catering, supported by Aled Roberts and Leanne Byron. Thank you all!

Thank you as well to all the Rotaractors who gave up their day and assisted with various roles. Lastly, many thanks to teachers who encouraged students to participate, to the many family members, and Rotarians from sponsoring clubs. It was great to see you there at MUNA.

Here are the results:

Overall Best Delegation: ETHIOPIA (Our Lady of Sion), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Box Hill Central
Runner-Up Overall Delegation: UKRAINE (Presbyterian Ladies College), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Box Hill Burwood

People's Choice Award (as voted by the delegates): UNITED KINGDOM (Avila College), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Glen Waverly

Best Dressed Delegation: BRAZIL (Lowanna College), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Moe

Peace Shield: UNITED STATES of AMERICA (Padua College), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Mornington

Governor's Commendation: DEMOCRATIC PEOPLES REPUBLIC of KOREA (Nossal High School), sponsored by the Rotary Club of Casey.

No Encouragement award was presented.

The adjudicators were diligent and provided feedback to the delegates at regular intervals. Much appreciation to Judy Lyons, Ian Button and David Leslie for a job well done.

Sincere congratulations to the award recipients and thanks to all the delegates who participated.

We look forward to running Rotary MUNA 2024 next August under the banner of District 9815.

Ethiopia delegates looking very sincere
