Chelsea Art Show is almost here! 7th – 10th June, 2024

Our Annual Art Show is almost here after much planning and preparation. We hope our 47th Art Show will be our best Art Show ever! Even though the number of entries varies from year to year, there are always many high-quality works for sale at reasonable prices, and there are always more than a few bargains. A piece of Art or two can add some je ne sais quois to your favourite room at home or to your office at work.

Our Art Show, which is supported by the City of Kingston and our very generous sponsors and supporters, is not just about raising funds for worthwhile Rotary projects and supporting community groups. It also helps to promote a sense of community, a place for locals (and people from farther afield) to come together and discuss the works, and just enjoy each other's company in a warm convivial atmosphere.

It's a credit to the hard-working Art Show Committee (and indeed all of the club members who support the Art Show) that the show continues to be held each year and remains as popular as ever in an increasingly online, digital world. Maybe it's because it gives people a chance to slow down and smell the flowers.

We're sorry the Ray White staff were unable to visit last week, due to contracting Covid. We look forward to having them back at a later date.

Members, please think about what you would like our 70th Birthday celebrations to look like. Yes, in October, Chelsea Rotary will have been active for 70 years!

Stay warm. Stay safe. Stay healthy.

Members: ATTENDING MEETINGS

To enable the RSL to organise their staffing and catering (which directly affects their business viability - and ours!), it is important to advise Kevin Harrison if Members will NOT be attending the Tuesday meeting, by early Tuesday morning at the latest.

OTHERWISE, IT WILL BE DEEMED YOU WILL BE ATTENDING.
