93-year-old Thelma Post lives alone in Los Angeles. Her aimless but loving grandson Daniel "Danny" Markowitz often visits and looks after her needs despite not taking responsibility for his own life. Although Thelma is close with Danny, she finds his constant assistance patronizing. A phone scammer calls Thelma posing as Danny, claiming he has been arrested. Thelma sends $10,000 to a local address as instructed. After a panic involving her daughter Gail and son-in-law Alan, Thelma finds out Danny is safe and she was scammed. Unable to get help from the police and unwilling to let the scammer get away with her money, Thelma evades her family and sets out to the address to retrieve it.

CHELSEA ROTARY MEETING 3350

TUESDAY 24th SEPTEMBER 2024

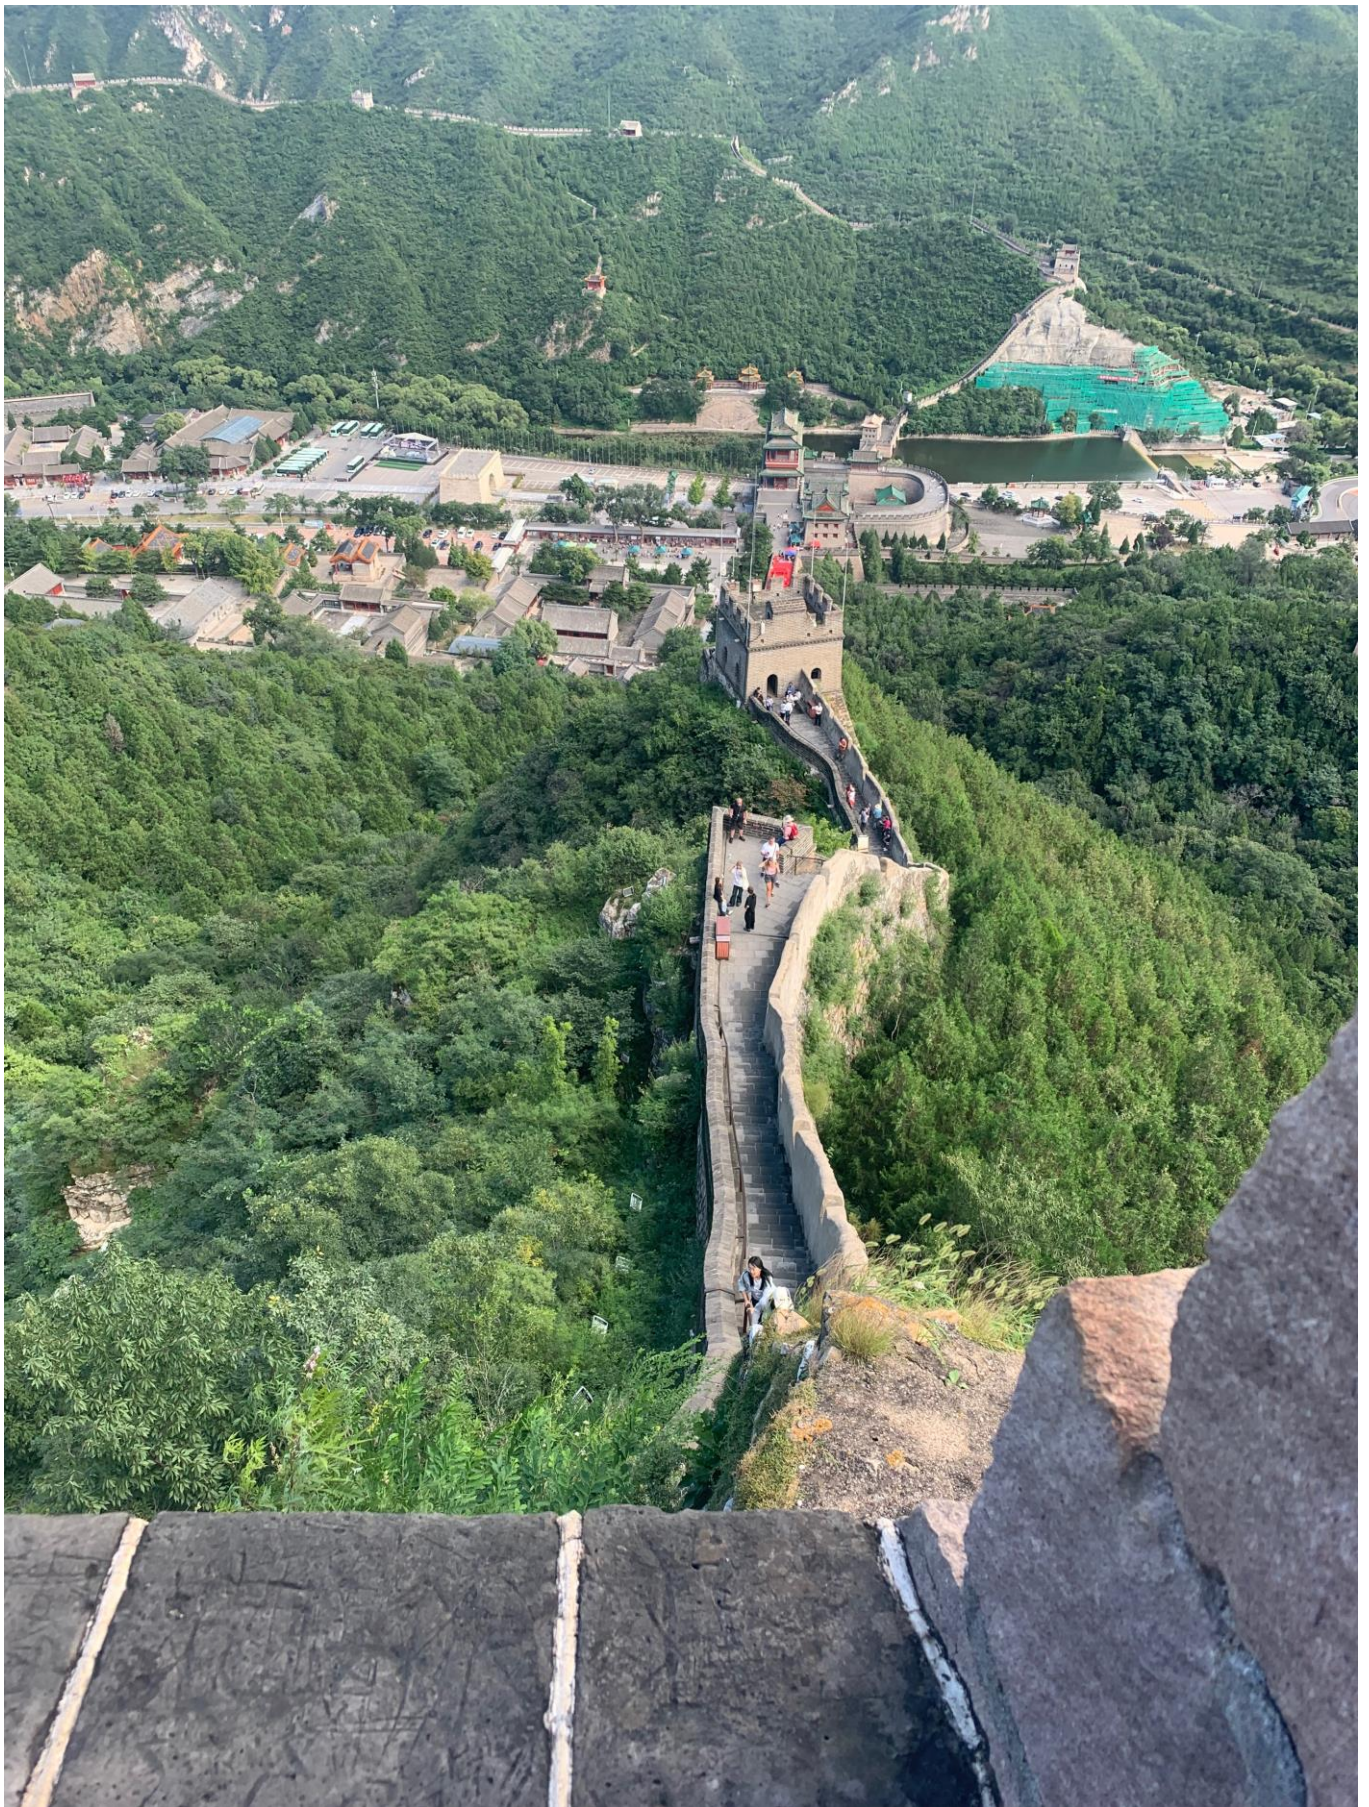

President Peter welcomed everyone, including our Guest Speaker, member Noel Jenkinson who spoke about his recent trip to China.

GUEST SPEAKER - Noel Jenkinson

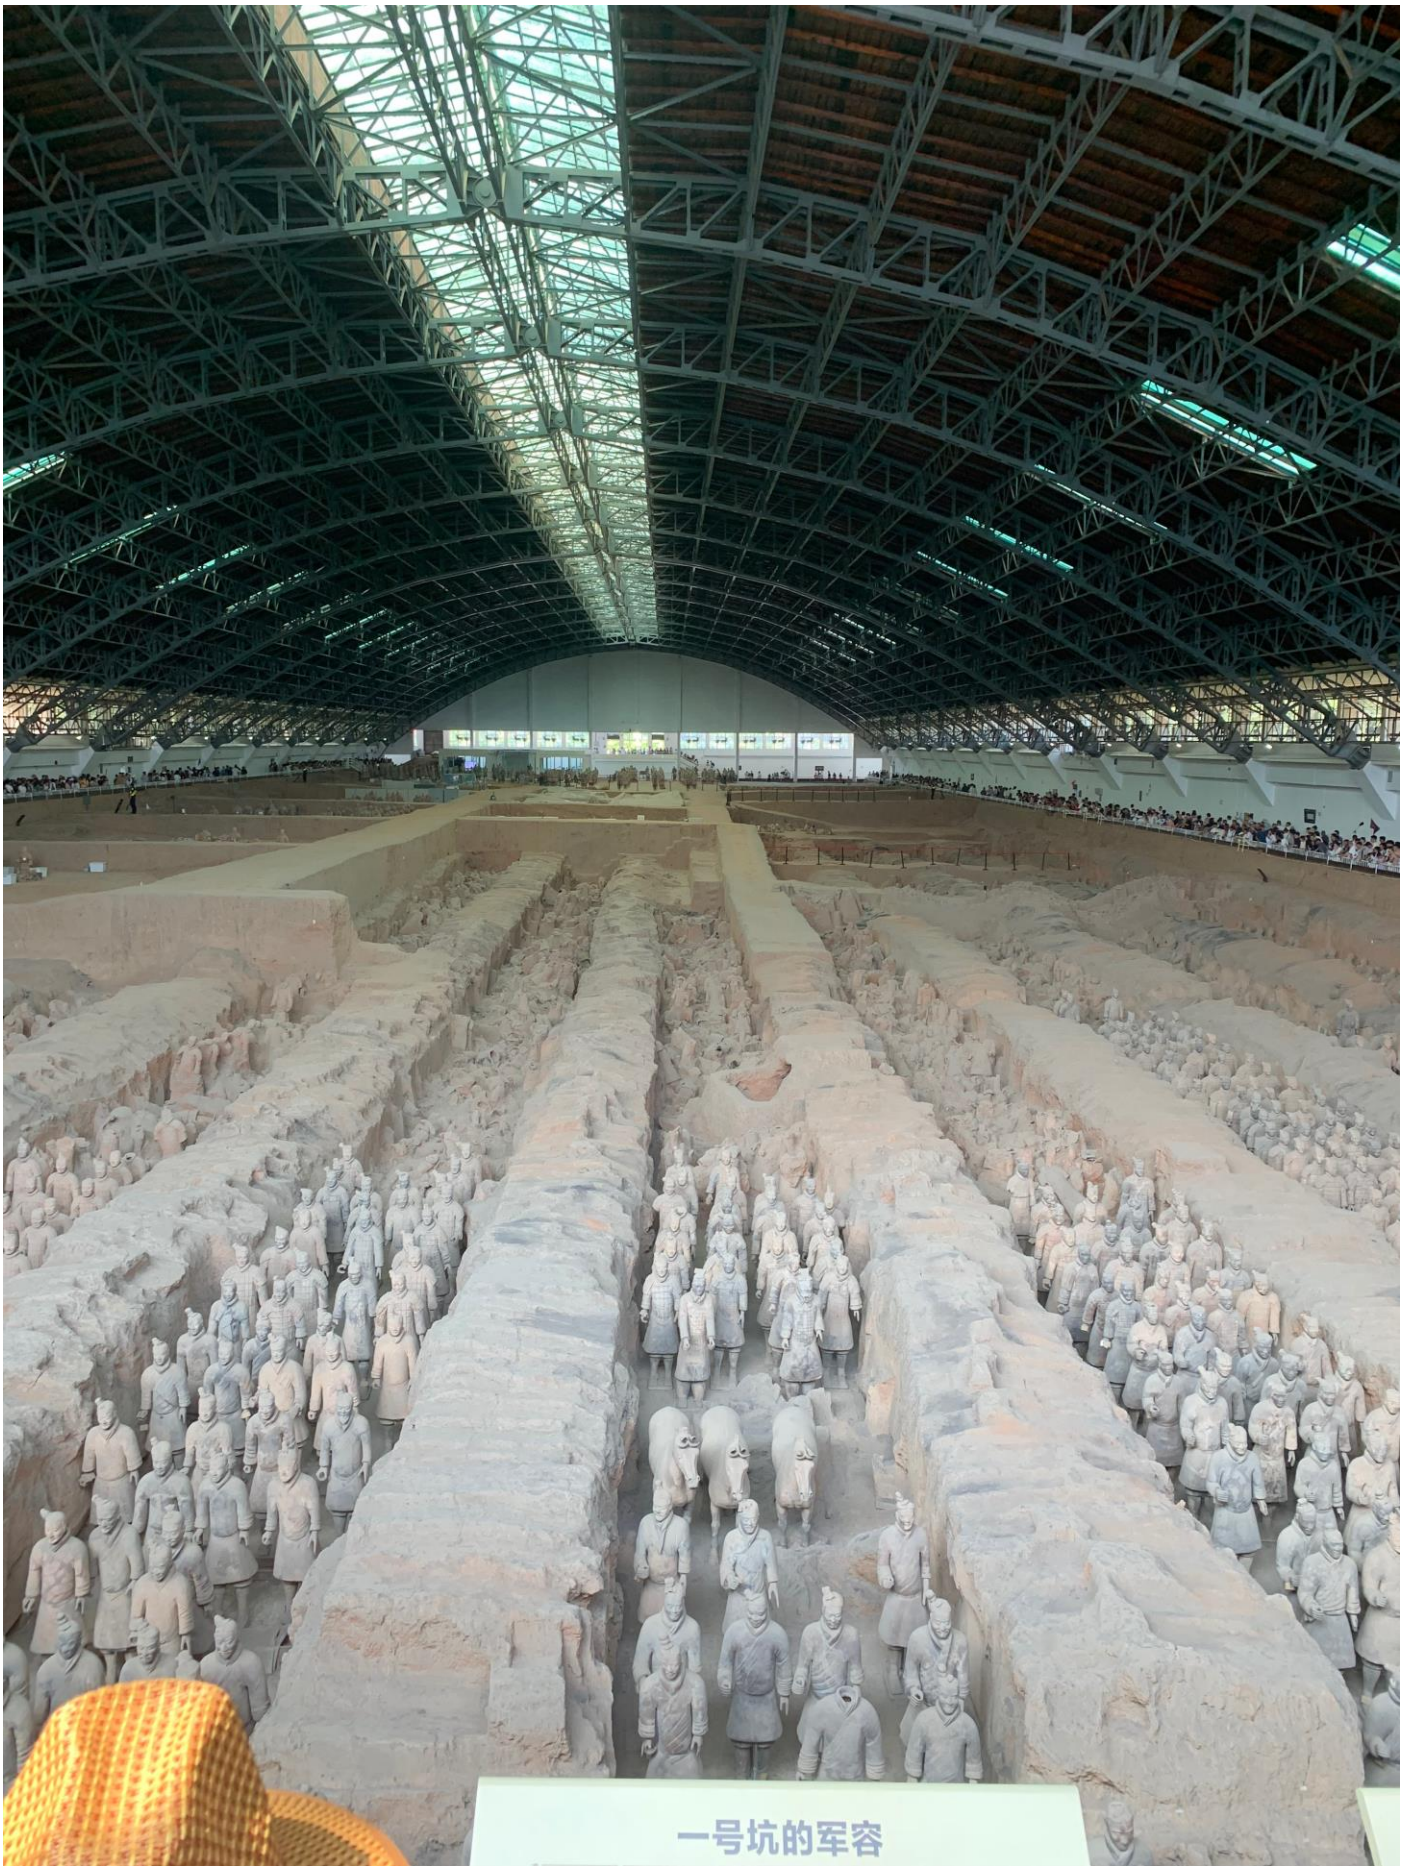

Noel gave a fascinating talk about his trip to China, a place where people follow the rules, and no questions are asked, it seems. The State has most everything organized, from ensuring law and order around the Houses of Parliament, to ensuring that visitors are treated to a display of a well-kept country. Despite the apparent lack of people around Shanghai (where were all the residents of the hundreds of high-rise tower blocks?), Noel enjoyed his time in China tremendously and is looking forward to returning there.

There were visiting diplomats and dignitaries which meant that the Chinese government closed off some roads around the Houses of Parliament pictured in the background. Far, far away in the background. "Nothing to see here. Move along."

Good fences make good neighbours; at least that's the theory. It depends where you build your wall I guess, and the state of your neighbourly relationships. The Great Wall of China required an astounding feat of human effort to build it across rugged topography. Noel says it still requires quite some physical effort to traverse a part of it, even if you're fairly fit.

一号坑的军容

Translation – ‘The military appearance of Pit 1.’

Google says this sign translates to “Love Shanghai”.

Fantastic talk Noel. We look forward to hearing about your further travels.

This week, Major Jennifer Cloke, team leader from the Salvation Army Dingley Village, will be coming to speak with us. Jennifer is also a member of Mordialloc/Mentone Rotary Club.
